Barn Rules

Please read through this catalogue and be certain to check each department and class for any changes in rules, specifications or limitations.

- 1) Exhibitors must be a Fauquier County resident or bonafide 4-H or FFA member of Fauquier County. To show in the 4-H or FFA division, the exhibitor must be active in a 4-H or FFA program and be ages 9-19. 4-H & FFA entries must be signed by exhibitor's leader or advisor. All other exhibitors will show in the Open division.
- 2) Pee Wee exhibitors will show in the open division and must be accompanied by an experienced exhibitor or adult. 4-H/FFA exhibitors will show in open and 4-H/FFA. In all cases exhibitors should show their own animals, except when two of their animals are in the same class, then fill in showmen must be Fauquier County Fair Exhibitors.
- 3) All Livestock exhibits, Including Rabbits & Poultry, must be in place by 11:00 am on Wednesday of the fair. 4-H Exhibitors may arrive Tuesday between 10:00am and 12:00pm. All other exhibitors may arrive on Tuesday between 6:00 pm and 8:00 pm or Wednesday between 9:00 am and 11:00 am.
- 4) All exhibitors MUST check- in. Check in will be located at the pavilion on the lower part of the Fairgrounds. Please access this by driving around the exhibit building. All health and registration papers are to be presented to fair officials at this time.
- 5) Exhibitors should show in dress attire – closed toe shoes, pants, dress shirt. Dairy exhibitors may show in dairy whites.
- 6) All exhibits must be in the care of and owned by the exhibitor by May 1, 2024. All Beef and Dairy Cattle exhibits must be registered in the name of the exhibitor by June 1, 2024.
- 7) Exhibitors will only be entered into the classes for which they register. An ID (ear tag, ear tattoo, or other permanent form of ID) must be present on the animal and match on the entry form and health papers.
- 8) Pre-entry pen fee is required for barn entries. Enter online at FAIRENTRY fauquierfair.com. Pen fees are $5.00 per head for Beef, Dairy, Sheep, and Goats. Rabbits & poultry will require a $2 per pen entry fee. Payment must be brought to check in in the form of check (preferred method - made out to Fauquier Fair) or exact cash in an envelope labeled with the exhibitor name.
- 9) Original (no copies) breed association registration certificates will be recognized as proof of ownership for all Beef and Dairy Cattle and copies must be turned in at check-in. The on-line version of the registry is the most up to date and accurate with each of the breed registrations and may be used for verification. Any non-registered cattle will be shown commercial. A copy of registration forms must be turned in at take in to be held on file. Health papers must be shown at take in.

- 10) Any animal may only be entered and shown in one breed division. Beef and dairy cattle must be registered with that respective national breed association to be shown in that breed show.
- 11) Small Ruminants must exhibit type and kind as determined by respective breed classification and shall be determined by show management.
- 12) Any Dairy Cattle leased by May 1, 2024 can show in the youth division with a 4-H or breed respected lease.
- 13) Pullorum is required before checking in to the fair. A testing clinic will be held on July 9th 6-8pm at the Fauquier Fairgrounds. Cost is $1.50/bird. AI testing will be done by Virginia State Vet after check in. Poultry exhibitors will be limited to no more than 2 entries of any variety not to exceed 20 entries.
- 14) No animals can leave the Fairgrounds before Saturday at 11:00pm, after the close of the Fair, unless otherwise instructed by fair staff. If animals leave early, no premiums will be paid to the exhibitor.
 - a. Producing Dairy cows may be removed from the Fairgrounds at 11:00pm on Thursday after the Dairy Show and the close of the fair.
- 15) To check out, cattle exhibitors must remove trash and other belongings. Sheep, goat, and poultry exhibitors must scrape their pens clean into the aisle.
- 16) Market animals and commercial breeding animals will be weighed in on Wednesday afternoon at 12:00pm.
- 17) NO For Sale signs may be posted on pens, stalls or cages. Any sold animals leaving Fairgrounds before 11:00pm Saturday will forfeit exhibitor's premiums in all departments entered, unless otherwise instructed by staff.
- 18) Exhibitors are encouraged to create displays for their stalling space. Up to a poster size display is acceptable and can be hung above pens or stalling space. Poultry and rabbit exhibitors should have a 3"x5" or a 5"x8" sign with their name, bird variety, and any other pertinent information.
- 19) Exhibit classes for Dairy, Beef, Sheep, Goats, Poultry, and Rabbits will be as set forth in the catalogue or as further specified by the Department Superintendent and Fair Superintendents after a review of the entries received. The Fair reserves the right to combine classes. Classes listed are guidelines only. Final classes will be made from entries received.
- 20) Exhibitors must be ready for their class when called, classes will not be held.
- 21) The possibility of substitutions may be permitted on a case-by-case basis. However, awards will not be guaranteed.

- 22) All vehicles are to be out of the barn and vendor area by no later than 12:00 pm, Wednesday through Friday, and 8:00 am Saturday. Vehicles will only be allowed in this area for no longer than 30 minutes, for drop-off purposes only. Vehicles will be towed if parked in this area for longer than 30 minutes.
- 23) Some shavings will be provided; any other bedding must be brought by the exhibitor. Any bedding needed beyond what the fair supplies, must be provided by the exhibitor. Feed must be provided by the exhibitor.
- 24) Fair management reserves the right to reject any animal or exhibit that:
- a) Is questionable as to breed or variety or does not adhere to the standards of its respective classification.
 - b) Does not present in adequate body condition or represents a handling risk to showman or the public as determined by Fair Board representatives.
 - c) Does not represent to the public the high animal welfare standards established by industry, veterinarian, and/or Land Grant University protocols for livestock production.
- 25) Exhibitors MUST maintain their animals in showmanship quality cleanliness throughout the Fair. Bedding for all species is to be clean and dry, and pens/cages should be cleaned regularly. All animals must be fed and watered on a regular basis and as needed on hot days. Aisle ways MUST BE CLEANED and MAINTAINED during open hours. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in forfeiture of premiums as determined by Fair Management.
- 26) Each exhibitor is expected to project an accurate, responsible, and courteous message about agriculture, animal care and management, and the related industry. Every opportunity should be taken to enhance public awareness and education of proper livestock management and handling practices. There will be no tolerance for exhibitors who do not comply with this requirement.
- 27) Pens will be assigned to each exhibitor by the Barn Superintendent. No bedding, equipment, etc. may be placed in the barn prior to the Barn Superintendent's stall assignment. If you wish to be penned adjacent to a specific exhibitor, it must be noted on the entry form. We will attempt to satisfy your request. However, there is no guarantee. NO pen changes will be made after arrival.
- 28) Stalling and penning will be done at the discretion of the barn superintendents. Sheep and goats will be penned 2 of the same sex and species to a pen by exhibitor/family unless otherwise requested.
- a) In the event of limited space, due to increased entries, tack area may be limited. "Family" is defined as exhibitors with the same mailing address on a case-by-case basis. Final pen spacing is determined by the Barn Superintendent.
- 29) Please be advised that all rules will be enforced and if violations occur, exhibitors could be asked to leave, forfeit their premiums and entry fees, or suspended from showing in future years. Participating in this event is at your own risk and that of the health of your animals.

- 30) Exhibitors are encouraged to bring generators. All equipment regardless of source of power must comply with all national, state and local safety codes. All exhibitors' electrical cords must be the 3-wire grounded type. All Exposed noncurrent carrying metal parts of fixed equipment, which are liable to be energized, will be grounded. Due to the electrical capacity in the livestock barns, all electrical usage may be regulated by the Livestock Committee. No refrigerators will be permitted in the barns.
- 31) Rule Violations. Within the show ring competition, the decision of the judge is final in all cases –except where an error or deliberate misrepresentation is discovered. In the case of unintentional error brought to light after placing has been announced but before the end of the show, a correction of placing and corresponding premiums will be made by Management. If the error is not discovered until after completion of the show, Management will make an effort to rectify the error but will not be held responsible for exhibitor unintentional error. If, in the opinion of management, an exhibitor willfully violates any rules, all premiums/prizes won by him/her will be forfeited and he/she may be subject to other penalties and Management deems appropriate.
- 32) Rule Interpretation. The fair management reserves the right to interpret all rules and regulations governing the show and to make such decisions as may be necessary for the successful conduct of the show. Such interpretations and decisions will be final.
- 33) Judges and Awards. The right is reserved to withhold the prize awarded in every case in which it shall appear that the regulations have not been complied with, or that fraud or deception has been attempted or where the article or animal is not worthy, and the decision shall be final and binding on all parties. Judges are especially instructed not to award premiums to any animal or article because of its presence. It must be individually worthy.
- 34) One pass will be given per exhibitor, plus two additional passes per family. "Family" is defined as exhibitors with the same mailing address, on a case-by-case basis. Passes will be handed out at check in.

Health Regulations

All Cattle, Sheep and Goats shall be accompanied by a health certificate issued within 30 days of the Fair by an accredited veterinarian with the individual animals identified with a tattoo, brand or permanent ear clip and listed on the health certificate stating that they are free from all infectious diseases including ringworm and warts. Cattle also will need to be vaccinated with the respiratory disease complex at least 15 days prior to the start of the Fair and no longer than 9 months from the start of the Fair. The vaccine should contain protection against IBR (Infectious Bovine Rhinotracheitis), BVD (Bovine Virus Diarrhea), P13 (Parainfluenza type 3) and BRSV (Bovine Respiratory Syncytial Virus). All equine entered shall require a current Coggins certificate (within a year).

All Cattle, Sheep, Dairy and Meat Goats will be checked for Body Condition Score upon arrival at the fair. If animals do not meet the minimum Body Condition Score as determined by a committee of industry professionals, they will not be allowed entry to the fair.

Minimum Body Condition Score

Department	Minimum Body Condition Score
Beef	5 or greater
Dairy	2.5 or greater
Sheep	3 or greater
Goats	2.5 or greater

Cattle

See above health regulations. All Cattle, which originate from Virginia farms shall be accompanied by a health certificate, issued within the past 30 days and signed by an accredited veterinarian which states that the animals are free of infectious and contagious diseases. It is the intent of the Board of Directors and the Fair Livestock Committee to allow only those Cattle which fairly and accurately represent the beef industry. NO Dairy cross Cattle will be allowed.

Sheep

See above health regulations. All Sheep must be accompanied by a health certificate issued within 30 days by an accredited veterinarian, which individually lists each animal and certifies that they are free of contagious and infectious diseases. Any animal exhibiting lesions of sore mouth or foot rot must be removed from the exhibition area. Virginia breeders with Virginia health certified flock status need to present their certificate of flock certification. All animals must be tattooed or tagged and listed individually on the health papers.

Goats

See above health regulations. All Goats shall be accompanied by a health certificate issued within 30 days by an accredited veterinarian, which individually lists each animal and certifies that they are free of contagious and infectious diseases. All animals must have tattoo or tag to match health papers. Caseous Lymphadenitis: Goats must be free of clinical symptoms of caseous lymphadenitis. Animals showing clinical symptoms of this disease will be removed from the exhibition grounds. "Clinical 20 symptoms" is used to define abscesses of lymph nodes whether draining or not.

Rabbits

Please be advised that all rabbits will be checked by a superintendent for any health issues upon arrival at the Fair. Any rabbits showing any signs of illness or health problems WILL NOT be allowed to remain on the Fair grounds and will be removed immediately. This is for the safety of not only your rabbits but the safety of other rabbits as well. Also, at that time you will be assigned a location for your cage for the duration of the Fair. All owners must handle their own rabbits while they are being checked in. Please DO NOT bring any rabbit exhibiting any of the following: Nasal discharge with sneezing and matted hair on the inside of the front paws; open wounds; sores containing pus; mites (ear or fur – unstoppable scratching is a possible sign of mites). Any dismissals are at the discretion of the supervisor and are not to be disputed.

Land Fowl & Waterfowl

Domestic Poultry/Waterfowl/Turkeys/Pigeons/all other birds. All fowl entered for exhibition shall appear healthy, and shall be external parasite free. Any bird, which does not meet these standards, shall be immediately removed from the exhibit. AI and Pullorum testing is required on fair level poultry entries. Leg bands must be placed on all birds.

- Animals must be in fair appropriate condition and show management reserves the right to refuse animals if deemed unfit.
- Exhibitors must choose/bring their own animals and make those arrangement prior to filling out registration.

NEW! Adult Showmanship – what's the best way to take entries?

- Try your hand at showing again or nominate someone else to enter the ring!
- $10 to enter, $20 to buy your nomination out.
- Adult showmanship class will take place during each species show, after youth showmanship divisions.
- Champion Adult Showman for each species will receive 50% of entries, all other entries will go towards the cost of the Master Showman Contest.
- Sign up will take place starting 1 hour prior to the show at the announcers stand.

NEW! Master Showman Contest (led animals only)

A supreme 4-H Showman will be chosen in each species, those showmen will compete against each other, Round Robin style, to earn the title of Master Showman.

- Eligible exhibitors will be notified by show staff.
- Should the supreme showman decline participating, the next showman in line will be offered a chance.

There will no longer be an open round robin contest due to the limited number of animals, the stress it causes them, and the limited space in the schedule

Barnyard Beauty Contest

Open to youth exhibitors. Exhibitors will be required to rapidly dress their animal in their costume of choice in the show ring. Judging will be done by the audience. Contestants should arrive 5 minutes prior to the start time for entry, not yet dressed for the contest.

Livestock Obstacle Course

Open to youth exhibitors. Think you and your animal have what it takes to loop, hop, and jump through obstacles? Come find out! Contestants should arrive 5 minutes prior to the start time for entry.

Open to youth exhibitors with rabbits or poultry. Think you and your animal have what it takes to loop, hop, and jump through obstacles? Come find out! Contestants should arrive 5 minutes prior to the start time for entry.

Rooster Crowing Contest

Open to youth exhibitors. Make it dark and let your rooster shine like the morning! Roosters in this contest will be judged on how many times they can crow within 15 minutes.

Educational Poster Contest

Open to youth exhibitors. Educational posters should be on livestock or agriculture topics and will be displayed for the public to see and gain knowledge from. One winner will be selected from each youth age group listed in the rules. Anticipate that posters will be hung with staples on the barn walls. Posters should be no larger than 22" x 28" (standard full-size poster).

NEW! Species Stockman's Challenge

Test your knowledge of breeds, the industry, equipment, and more. Open for dairy, sheep, meat goats, and poultry. Contests will be held daily in the barns, no pre-entry is required, contestants will compete at their own pace. An overall Master Stockman will be tallied and announced on Saturday during the Supreme Showman Contest. Exhibitors who compete in at least 3 of the 5 contests (beef, sheep, meat goat, dairy, and poultry) will be eligible for Master Stockman, which will be the highest cumulative scoring individual.

NEW! Herdsman

Returning for 2024 is the 4-H Herdsman Contest. 4-H Exhibitors will be monitored throughout the week and ranked on their stall display, involvement in fair contests, showmanship placing, as well as their sportsmanship, curtesy, helpfulness, and display of self and the agriculture industry.
