Dear Exhibitors,

We are excited to welcome you to the upcoming Fauquier County Fair! Your hard work and dedication contribute to making this event a memorable experience for all attendees. To ensure a smooth and enjoyable event, we kindly ask that you review and adhere to the following guidelines regarding exhibitor conduct and sportsmanship.

Exhibitor Rules:

1. Registration and Setup: All exhibitors must register and set up their displays by the designated time. Late arrivals may forfeit their exhibition space.
2. Exhibit Maintenance: Exhibits should be maintained in a clean, safe, and presentable condition throughout the duration of the fair.
3. Compliance with Safety Regulations: All exhibits must adhere to the safety standards and guidelines set forth by the fair committee to ensure the safety of both exhibitors and attendees.
4. Respect for Fair Property: Exhibitors are responsible for the care of the space provided and should avoid causing any damage to fair property.

Code of Conduct and Sportsmanship:

1. Respect for Others: Treat fellow exhibitors, fair officials/volunteers, and attendees with respect and courtesy at all times.
2. Positive Representation: As an exhibitor, you represent not only your organization but also the values of the Fauquier County Fair. Please conduct yourself in a manner that promotes fairness, inclusivity, and integrity.
3. Fair Competition: Any competitive exhibits should reflect good sportsmanship, and participants should accept both victories and losses with grace.
4. Conflict Resolution: If any disagreements arise, please address them respectfully and, if necessary, involve fair officials for resolution.

Judging and Awards:

- Judging and decisions are final and made with fairness and impartiality.
- Awards and recognitions are meant to celebrate achievement and foster community spirit.

The mission of the Fauquier County Fair is to carry out further educational work with the citizens of Fauquier County by providing grounds, facilities, and financial support and to conduct a fair whereby the citizens may exhibit their projects in competition with each other.
